

Subject: Ethics and Moral Theology online taught by Dominicans

From: Heidi McKenna <hmckenna@dspt.edu>

Date: 9/9/2021, 1:37 PM

To: calvin@rosary-center.org

Ethics and Moral Theology

Online Continuing Education

Fr. Justin Gable, OP
DSPT Professor of Philosophy

Fr. Michael Hurley, OP, Pastor, St. Dominic's
Church, San Francisco

Course: An Introduction to Catholic Social Teaching

Professors: Fr. Justin Gable, OP and Fr. Michael Hurley, OP

Dates and Location: Saturdays on Zoom, 10 am-12 pm PT, October 2, 9, 16, 23, and November 6 and 13

Description: A look at the social teaching of the Catholic Church, beginning with Pope Leo XIII and his landmark encyclical Rerum Novarum in a historical and theological context. We will see how the themes and concerns of Rerum Novarum are developed by his successors Benedict XV, Pius XI, Pius XII, and John XXIII. Among the themes of Catholic Social Teaching we will be exploring are human dignity, the common good, justice, peace, the preferential option for the poor, and the universal call to holiness and virtue.

Register for this course

Contact Admissions

Giving Opportunities

Dominican School of Philosophy & Theology, 2301 Vine Street, Berkeley, CA 94708,
United States, (510) 849-2030

Unsubscribe Manage preferences